Anusha B: Hi. My name is Anusha Rani, How may I help you on your hosting today ?
22:08, May 3
You: hosting expired 2 month ago and now i am back for renewable but can't find any hosting server in my account so not able to renew that
22:09, May 3
You: actually i am owner of reseller account this is my client account. here is the account details. id 183231259 pin 1803
22:10, May 3
You: please check and suggest me best way to recover and renew again.
22:10, May 3
Anusha B: Basically, when the hosting plan is expired there will be few days grace period ie about 7-10 days for renewal and post that the hosting plan will be suspended and removed from the account in case If the product is not renewed. Is this is the account - 183231259 in which hosting plan is expired.?

Anusha B: Further, we have tried checking for the back up availability as well in order to help with hosting restore paid expert service but it shows: No backups found.
22:24, May 3
Anusha B: From the parent server there is no backup orion for restore. Time being, If there is back up available in your local pc or with web developer you can purchase the hosting plan and upload the files or else need to go with redesign.
